

Civil Justice: Judicial Report Project Assistant

An organization specializing in research and observation of public policy affiliated with the InterDom project seeks students of political science, law, anthropology or related fields to become involved in a judicial report project.

The internship offers the opportunity to work with a multi-disciplinary team for 20 to 25 hours per week and to earn transferable college credit. The intern will receive training and quickly become familiar with the workings of the organization.

Applicants must have completed at least four courses of Spanish language at the university level or be able to demonstrate equivalent skill. The applicant must have basic computer skills and knowledge of Microsoft programs such as Word, Power Point and Excel and have taken at least 3 college courses related to civil justice.

The student will have the opportunity to identify possibilities to modernize the civil jurisdiction system of the Dominican Republic. In addition, the student will learn valuable lessons on issues that will enhance their résumé.

Internship code:	INTERN – DEV
Related Areas:	Development Law Education
Type of organization:	NGO
Area of specialization:	Civil Jurisdiction
Project profile:	Gather and collate legal statistics, modernization of civil and commercial jurisdiction.
Available placements:	1
Location:	Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic
Position:	Collaborator assigned to the labor law section.
Description of the position:	The intern will carry out functions that lead to statistical information, the creation of profiles, territorial jurisdiction

Civil Justice: Judicial Report Project Assistant

information and identification of reform and modernization projects in the area of civil jurisdiction in the Dominican Republic.

Internship objectives:

To generate space where students in this area are motivated to make recommendations on civil practices oriented toward the commercial and private sector.

Estimated start date:

September 10, 2010

Estimated end date:

December 10, 2010

Travel:

To be determined during the internship, depending upon project needs. The organization will plan all trips and cover transportation and lodging costs.

Apply now:

Register at www.interdominternships.org/registro or send a cover letter and résumé to registro@interdominternships.org