

Gizem Eren-Baig

Gizem Eren-Baig joined the World Bank's Human Resources Partnership Programs Unit to launch the Voice Secondment Program (VSP) soon after its initiation by the World Bank's Board in 2004. The VSP is a capacity enhancement program for civil servants of the Bank's client governments with 96 graduates and 26 participants currently on board. Prior to the VSP, Ms. Eren-Baig worked in the World Bank's Europe and Central Asia Region for 15 years, during which time she coordinated the Region's Country Units and 26 Country Offices.

Before joining the World Bank, Ms. Eren-Baig worked in two private sector companies in Ankara and for the Ambassador of Spain (Dean in 1989) as his Protocol Secretary, managing the Diplomatic Corps' activities in Turkey. Ms. Eren-Baig holds an MBA in International Business Finance from the George Washington University, USA, and a BA in Archeology from the Ankara University, Turkey. She continues to focus her learning and development on cross cultural studies, management science, diversity & inclusion and non-profit organization management.